Law Minister's Conference held in New Delhi

756. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL; Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Law Minister's Conference was recently held in New Delhi in which Home Ministers of States also participated;

(b) if so, what are the details of discussions held/outcome thereof; and

(c) whether Government propose to bring forward any legislation during Monsoon Session of Parliament regarding procedure to be followed for expeditious appointment of Judges of High Courts and for their transfer policy?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI RAMAKANT D. KHALAP): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The major decisions taken in the meeting are:—

(1) To amend the Code of Criminal Procedure broadly on the lines of recommendations made by the Law Commission in its 154th Report;

(2) To amend the Code of Civil Procedure to avoid delay in completing procedural requirements and to promote alternative dispute resolution mechanisms;

(3) To launch statewise drive for one year with effect from 15 August, 1997 for holding Lok Adalats on quarterly basis to help reduce pendency of cases;

(4) To restore position with regard to appointment of Judges as it-existed prior to 1993 Supreme Court's decision in the case of Advocates on Record Association Vs. Union of India;

(5) To take up review/repeal of obsolete laws on priority basis;

(6) Making available legal information like Central enactments and decided cases on internet for easy accessibility; and

(7) To amend Advocates Act, 1961 & Notaries Act, 1952.

(c) No, Sir.

Reverting to earlier practice in appointment and transfer of Judges

757. SHRI SHIV CHARAN SINGH:
SHRI GOVINDRAM MIRI:

Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have since decided to revert to earlier practice in the matter of appointment and transfer of Judges of High Court and Supreme Court; and

(b) if so, the need and justification thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI RAMAKANT D. KHALAP): (a) and (b) The Government decided to introduce a Constitution Amendment Bill in Parliament to make changes in the existing system of appointment of Judges of the Supreme Court, Chief Justices of the High Courts, Judges of the High Courts and transfer of Judges of the High Courts. The Government felt it necessary to amend the Constitution to reiterate and spell out the intent of the framers of the Constitution clearly and unambiguously with a view to keep it beyond the pale of any controversy. Accordingly, the Constitution (Eighty-Second Amendment) Bill, 1997 was circulated to members of the Lok Sabha in March, 1997.
